

Curtin University is required to assess applicants for admission against the Department of Home Affairs (DHA) Genuine Temporary Entrant and Genuine Student criteria (<https://www.homeaffairs.gov.au/trav/stud/more/genuine-temporary-entrant>).

The purpose of this form is to enable the University to make an assessment of the genuineness of an applicant's intention to complete their studies at Curtin University. Each question is targeting a specific area that Curtin University will base its assessment on, and the DHA may be interested in during your visa application. To facilitate our assessment, please complete and return this form to the University. The University must be satisfied that you are a genuine student before giving you an offer.

Instructions for completing this form

Section 6: Other Family and Relatives

Adjusting to living in a new country can be difficult. Community and family support can be great support when adjusting to your new environment. If you have relatives and friends in other cities other than Perth, it may be in your best interest to apply and study in that city. Should you choose to come study at Curtin University in Perth, we will ensure that you get a smooth transition.

As a Curtin University student you will have access to a wide range of services including orientation sessions, health and counselling services and academic support services. You can get more information about the support services provided at <https://international.curtin.edu.au/pre-departure/support-services/>

a. Do you or your spouse have any relatives currently living in Australia? This includes siblings, parents, grandparents, children, aunts, uncles and cousins. No Yes ▶ If yes please provide details below.

Name of Relative	Relationship to you?	City of Residence?	Visa Type? (e.g. Citizen , Permanent Resident or Student Visa)

Please note: If you have relatives living in a city other than Perth, we strongly advise you to study in that city. If you opt to study with Curtin University in Perth and then request a release to move closer to your relatives, the University may not consider it sufficient grounds for release. You will be required to continue with your course at Curtin University and make use of the transitional support services available to all students.

b. If you are coming to study in Perth, Western Australia and your relatives live in another city, please explain below why you have decided not to study in the city or location where you already have relatives

Section 7: Ability to afford to live and study at Curtin University in Perth

In order to be granted an Australian student visa, you must have access to sufficient funds to meet your tuition and living costs for the entire duration of your studies. As international students are only allowed to work 40 hours per fortnight and getting part time work is not guaranteed, you will not be able to rely on this to cover your tuition and living expenses. Curtin University will not consider inability to raise your tuition fees and living expenses as grounds for release from the University

For more information about tuition and living costs in Australia please see:

1. Curtin University Student Fees information - <http://futurestudents.curtin.edu.au/fees-charges/>;
2. Curtin University advice on budgeting - <http://international.curtin.edu.au/pre-departure/budget/>; and
3. Australian Government information on living costs - <http://www.studyinaustralia.gov.au/global/live-in-australia/living-costs> .

a. What do you expect your total expenses to be for the duration of your stay in Australia (including the costs for any dependants if applicable)? Please base your calculations on the information provided by the Dept. of Home Affairs at: <https://www.homeaffairs.gov.au/trav/stud/more/student-visa-living-costs-and-evidence-of-funds>

	Tuition Fees (in $AUD)	Living Costs (in $AUD)	Total Cost (in $AUD)	Tuition Fees (in local currency)	Living Costs (in local currency)	Total Cost (in local currency)
Yourself
Dependants Including and children (if any)
Total

Living costs are a minimum amount required for visa purposes. Living costs vary depending on where you will be living and studying. It is your responsibility to determine and cover your costs whilst living and studying in Australia. You must not rely on work to support yourself in Australia as a student.

b. How will you pay for your tuition, living expenses and travel arrangements to Australia? Please provide details below. Please note that in some cases you may be required to provide bank statements/loan documents. If you are a sponsored student, please provide financial guarantee from your sponsor.
